

Dear iOS RRXtend Spray App user,

Please back up your data before you update the RRXtend Spray App in the Apple Store.

Step 1. Back up your records by linking to Google Drive or exporting your records as a PDF.

- a. If you have previously linked to your Google Drive, your records are stored on your Google Drive account and can be accessed through the use of the RRXtend Spray App.
- b. To link your data to your Google Drive account:
 - a. Go to Record Keeping, All Records.
 - b. Check that your Google Drive has been linked.

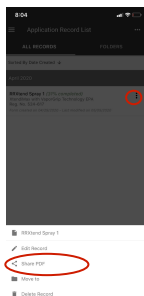

← If you see the message below your records, you have not linked to your Google Drive account. Click on the blue link to set up your account.

- c. Ensure that you are connected to WiFi or that cellular service is on so the app can connect to your Google Drive.
- d. Your records are now stored on your Google Drive account and can be accessed through use of the RRXtend Spray App.

OR

c. To export your data as a PDF to email or text:

- a. Go to Record Keeping, All Records.
- b. On the record to export, select from the menu Share PDF.

← Click on the menu, select share PDF, select mail, enter the email address to send the PDF.

- c. Check the email address to ensure your records have been received.
- d. Your records are now accessible in that email address until downloaded to a computer.

PLEASE KEEP THESE RECORDS IN YOUR PERSONAL FILES, AS THEY WILL NOT APPEAR IN THE UPDATED APPLICATION.

Step 2. Go to the Apple Store, download the new version 3.1.32 of the application.

Call 1-844-RRXtend if experience any further issues with the app.

ALWAYS READ AND FOLLOW PESTICIDE LABEL DIRECTIONS. The RRXtend Spray App provides forecasts for locations within the contiguous United States. Do not use this app for forecasts outside the contiguous United States. Forecasts are for planning purposes only and are not a substitute for checking actual weather conditions at your location at the time of application and comply with the product label and other legal requirements.
